of these WORLD RENOWNED ESCOMOTEURS.

To the kenowledge seeker it opens a new mine of thought. To the learned it shows te what perfection the appliances of art may be brought, even to the mystifying of the senses. To the young it is an actual realization of their wildest imaginings, an occular presentation of the wonders of the "Arabian Nights." In short, to the young, the old, the grave, the staid, the jovial, the cultivated and the illiterate, it is alike a rare source of enjoyment.
